

@rabbit

The electronic publication for Club GTI

Issue4 May 2003

Welcome

The last couple of issues of eRabbit have contained a header designed by myself. Many of you would have guessed I am no Graphic Designer. Club Member Jason Davey has designed and supplied the new header and I would like to thank Jason.

GTI International 2003

Website

Chris Harvey has been busy setting up the new / improved website over the last couple of months. Hopefully the next couple of weeks should see the launch of the improved website. I would like to thank Chris for the work he has put into the site.

Technical Information

With the advent of the web it is possible to gain vast amounts of information on the cars we drive. I intend to expand this section to include web addresses of sites, which offer such information. If you have any sites, which may be of interest to other Club Members, please email on the address below, the addresses for inclusion into this section.

To check out VW Technical Information log onto www.exist.ru

Events

A full list of events for 2003 is now posted on the Club website. Please visit www.clubgti.com for the up to date listing.

New Products

Regional Host and Club Member Ray partner has a supply of Carnauba based polish sold only to the motor trade or car valeters. It can be used on the plastic or rubbers and produces no white dust. The cost of a 400ml pot is £15. There are a number of other products available including a Colour Restorer all at a trade prices. If you want more details look out for Ray and the shows or email him on ray@partner.fsworld.co.uk

Feedback

I would be grateful if you have any comments on this publication if you could email me. If you do not wish to receive this type of correspondence please email the membership secretary and request to be removed from the distribution list.

Regards

Pete Seeva
chairman@clubgti.com